Looking toward the election

By Mike Green, Local 652 President

Wow, summer has flashed by us! I hope everyone has had the chance to do some fun things with your family during the summer time.

I want to thank everyone who took the time to vote in the primary election. Our endorsed candidates did well, but now we must finish the process by voting this fall. Following is a list of our endorsed candidates. They were screened at our CAP Council screening committee and presented to our Capital Area CAP Council for approval. Our process asks all the candidates who applied for our endorsement questions of their positions on issues that involve working people and our community. Endorsed in Lansing races: Tina Houghton – City Council, Second Ward.

Resisting anti-unionism

There should be no doubt that unions play a crucial role in society. Workers who belong to unions receive a fair wage and are more likely to receive benefits and pensions.

As we face the reality of right to work legislation here in Michigan, I’ve heard arguments from both organized and non-organized workers as to whether unions will continue to hold power in controlling the future of work- ers’ rights. The discussion arises because organized labor has and continues to have a direct effect on all workers, both union and non-union.

When one can finally discover the truth behind this template mirror portrayal of right to work legislation, due money is the golden egg surrounding that debate. Without it, the union loses the capital needed to service the contract and run their day-to-day operations imperative to its survival as an organization.

Big business and their lobbyists want you to believe they are pro-workers’ rights. They imply that someone should not be forced to pay union dues in order to have a job. The reality is they want to cut the unions off at the knees and leave them bankrupt, unable to stand up and fight against legislation intended to weaken the middle class and the voice of labor.

Unionized workers who decide to forgo paying dues are still entitled to union-won benefits and the right to fair representation, but someone has to pay the associated costs—i.e., others who pay their dues. When enough of the others decide to essentially “freeload,” who will be left to pay these costs? When this becomes an issue, not only will all workers feel the effects, it will also impact the social infrastructure within our communities. It may at this point be too late to reverse the effects caused by such action.

Many workers might not put a lot of emphasis on these facts, but employers do. As political attacks on working families become the norm, employers are smiling from ear to ear, happy to operate with fewer restraints. Taking account of employees who don’t pay union dues also gives an employer a measurement of the muscle available within the workforce to fight violations to contract agreements.

Unions have taken a direct hit, at least in the private sector, and courts have grown friendlier to business. Public acceptance of this paradigm shift becomes commonplace, thus pushing the advantage in the companies’ favor, letting them come much closer to setting the terms of their relationship with employees.

Looking forward and back

It just seems like yesterday we were patiently waiting for the arrival of spring and now we are staring down the barrel of fall. At least we can take solace in the fact that this summer was not so hot and uncomfortable as last year. As we are looking forward, we find September around the corner. This will be a very busy month for the Local and we will continue to report to you of all our activities.

The Local was a UAW Region 1-C Women’s Council back-up event was again a huge success. The day was cool and rainy, but the recipients of the Women’s Council outreach efforts were richly rewarded. The Local 724 Women’s Committee Chair Debora Mills took part in the efforts and was amazed at the turnout. This event along with other school supply efforts only adds to the total of outreach efforts that the community rallies around. This lack of resources illustrates that the children of today have to go to school without the supplies that they enjoyed in the past.

As someone who started his schooling in the late 50’s we never had to think about depending on receiving school supplies. Our sincere wish is that one day this community will have a food bank. As we look ahead to the fall, we must remember to help any and all of our Units to receive a fair wage.

Tony, former Huntsman Unit Chair and Local 724 Vice President, is currently a UAW Region 1-C Servicing Rep. Tony coordinated the delivery of the dirt and took time away from his busy schedule to help fill in the yard. Thanks to both.

The IMPCO Unit recently ratified a new collective bargaining agreement. With new ownership that had some extreme ideas and differences of opinions, the bargaining committee persevered in getting a new agreement. We offer our humble congratulations to the membership, which is the second oldest unit in the Local.

We are also extending our thanks for his service to Glenn McClellan, who recently resigned as Unit Chair at the Huntsman Unit. The unit is oldest in the Local and we appreciate the contributions Glenn made to the Local and to the Huntsman Unit.

We recently had a visitor stop by the Local from one of our former Units. Mike Mayhew, formerly of the Lindberg/Bodycote Unit, was in the area and said hello. We are always happy to have any and all of our units to work healthy. Mike is now working at the Lansing Delta Township GM facility as a UAW Local 602.

Lastly, as we referenced our oldest units, we are about to commemorate our 75th Anniversary as a UAW Local. Chartering on May 14, 1940, the Local has seen many changes, both positive and some not so much.

The Local has seen the drop forge industry in Lansing thrive and the membership at Local 724 prosper as they had good paying jobs. At one time you could make as much or even more at the Atlas, Federal, Lansing, Lindell, or Melling Drop Forges as you could at General Motors in some cases. Generations of families were able to achieve middle-class status through the pay and benefits that the UAW contracts afforded the membership.

Sadly, the industry ceased to exist as a unionized workforce in the Lansing area last year.

The Local has been supplemented by supplier facilities to the GM plants and others. About 80% to 90% of the Local 724 membership now works at a work-site that has a direct relationship with GM. With that background, we will plan to commemorate those who blazed the path before us at Local 724. In 2014 we will celebrate the historic event. If you or your family have any items you would like to share for the event, please contact me at d.poggiali@uawlocal724.org or (517) 203-5027.

May the wind be at your back and peace and joy within your soul.

LOCAL 1753
Ray Whitford, President

Bursting at the seams

Where can we purchase some wall street? We can buy our plant? The plant is bursting at the seams. The 1000 Area is full, waiting for locations to store baskets, pallets and racks. Afternoons picks and delivers to the departments making it a real chore. All put-away areas are full, with trains waiting to be unloaded. Departments are being hit with trains from Receiving. We need space.

Somehow we do seem to survive, thanks to the people who do the jobs and get parts out to our customers and to storage areas.

Management hired five hourly employees, but we had four retire—making a gain of one. We can use more hourly people, plain and simple. Overtime is plentiful, but at the end of the week people are worn out and need the day off so as to regenerate the body and get ready for the next week.

Among the retirees effective July 1 was Alternate Benefit Rep Doty Danahy, who also was an XR CAP Chair. Doty, we would like to thank you for all your involvement with our local union. You did an excellent job representing our local, with countless hours spent on CAP, working on campaigns, attending meetings, etc. We wish you good luck with your retirement. Don’t forget, with time on your hands, they still can use help working on the campaigns.

The bulletin boards were posted for resumes to fill the vacancy of Alternate Benefit Rep. The interviews were conducted. Selecting the replacement for Doc 46 of the International’s national agreement is no easy task. The member we recommend has been submitted to the International for their appointment.

Meetings Executive Board: Sept. 17 at 2:15 p.m. General membership: Sept. 18 at 2:05 p.m. Sanitation workers: Sept. 15 at 1:00 p.m.

Making Strides

The fight to end breast cancer starts with a single step. Take that step with us at the American Cancer Society Making Strides Against Breast Cancer walk. Just a few hours of your time will help bring a lifetime of change for people facing breast cancer and their families.

Every Making Strides Against Breast Cancer event is an incredible and inspiring opportunity to unite as a community to honor breast cancer survivors, raise awareness about what we can do to reduce our breast cancer risk, and raise money to help the American Cancer Society fight the disease with breast cancer research, information and services, and access to mammograms for women who need them. Lansing’s event is October 26 at the Capitol. See www.making strideswalk.org/lansingmi and Xerox management to rectify known issues that we are working with General Motors with their experienced GM payroll/dues deduction issue. When General Motors transitioned to a new payroll system, they went from a paperless environment to a manual one, which created a challenge for our members. A huge “thank you” goes out to Roberta and her colleagues at UAW Region 1-C office out of Flint for their vigilance and coordination which helped solve this problem so swiftly.

Another huge “thank you” and hugs go out to Roberta and her colleagues at APRI for participating at the Voter Registration table to ensure any members had the opportunity to become a registered voter or change their address if needed. Our V-CAP drive was also held at this event for which we appreciate and thank Shane, Krista and Art from UAW Region 1-C office out of Lansing for attending and helping. This event is so local and beneficial to our members participating in our most recent annual event! It is truly a wonderful event for the Executive Board to meet our members one-on-one and express our gratitude for the excellent work they do each and every day at Sparrow Hospital.

It is an honor to have them as members of UAW Local 4911. It is with deepest gratitude that we show our appreciation to our members as we stand together in these challenging times of economic uncertainty.

Stepping up

I am sure there have been times when many of us felt our efforts have been unnoticed. I want to say, however, that is not always true. We have many members who do not seek the limelight. They volunteer to help our local committees or members because they truly love being involved in their Local Union.

I would like to personally thank our Executive Board members, our Local committees, and our numerous volunteers for all their dedication to this great Local. These members work hard for our membership every day and are always willing to step up to the plate. Whether it is for a community organization or a member in need of a helping hand, Local 602 always comes together to help. I am proud of everyone who diligently works for our members.

I would like to extend an invitation to our members to become involved in your Union. We always have volunteer opportunities throughout the year. Stop in at the Hall, call (517) 372-4626, or contact a committee chair to see where you can volunteer your services.

Please note since January, 2013, when General Motors transitioned to their new payroll system, Local 602 has experienced GM payroll/dues deduction issues. These deduction issues are not the fault of our Local Union. Currently, we are working with General Motors and Xerox management to rectify known dues and initiation deduction issues.

I’m proud to be from UAW Local 602.

Thank you, Local 4911 members

UAW Local 4911 held its second annual membership appreciation cookout August 13 at Sparrow Hospital campus and August 15 at St. Lawrence campus. Many of our Executive Board members worked setting up the event, as well as working the “food line.” We fed the day shifts and we also returned for the evening shifts as well. Wil Slone, grill Sergeant at Arms, cooked approximately 1,400 hot dogs for our membership! We increased our participation numbers by a vast amount over last year’s cookout. A huge “thank you” also goes to the Food Service managers and staff at Sparrow and St. Lawrence Hospital, for without their expertise in serving vast numbers of people over a small time frame, we might have run out of food. We sincerely appreciate all the planning and coordination which helped make our event so successful. A sincere “thank you” and hugs go out to Roberta and her colleagues at APRI for participating at the Voter Registration table to ensure any members had the opportunity to become a registered voter or change their address if needed. Our V-CAP drive was also held at this event for which we appreciate and thank Shane, Krista and Art from UAW Region 1-C office out of Lansing for attending and helping. Labor Day

As we are coming up on Labor Day, I thought it might be fun to look at a little history of the holiday that celebrates the American worker.

Labor Day, the first Monday in September, is a creation of the labor movement and is dedicated to the social and economic achievements of American workers. It constitutes a yearly national tribute to the contributions workers have made to the strength, prosperity, and well-being of our country.

Labor Day was first celebrated on Tuesday, September 5, 1882 in New York. The celebration occurred on the same date in 1883, and changed to the traditional day of the first Monday in September in 1884. The Central Labor Union was the first group to celebrate the holiday and following the event in 1884 urged similar organizations in other cities to follow their example and celebrate a “workingmen’s holiday” on that date. The idea spread with the growth of labor organizations, and in 1885 Labor Day was celebrated in many industrial centers of the country. Oregon was the first state to make it a holiday on February 21. It was twenty years later that it became a federal holiday in 1894, thirty states officially celebrated Labor Day.

Labor Day has come to be celebrated by most Americans as the symbolic end of the summer. In U.S. sports, Labor Day marks the beginning of the NFL and college football seasons. Many school districts may be taking advantage of the end of summer vacation and resume school shortly after Labor Day. To this American, Labor Day remains what it has always been, a testament to a celebration of the hard work and dedication of all the “workingmen.”

A quote from the Department of Labor website sums it up: “The vital force of labor added materially to the highest standard of living and the greatest production the world has ever known and has brought us closer to the realization of the traditional ideals of economic and political democracy. It is appropriate, therefore, that the nation pay tribute on Labor Day to the creator of so much of the nation’s strength, freedom, and leadership—the American worker.”

Real solidarity

The word solidarity is thrown around frequently in Labor circles and in the UAW in particular. Unfortunately, many people do not have a clear concept of what the term solidarity means to the Labor movement. The early Union activist Eugene V. Debs defined solidarity as having the following elements: identity of interest, clarity of vision, honesty of intent, and oneness of purpose. Debs believed that lacking any of these, efforts to achieve the Labor movement would be barren of results.

Another famous activist, Mother Jones, put it this way, “We must be together: our masters are joined together and we must do the same.” People don’t talk like that anymore; to some people such sentiments might seem over the top. Maybe people are embarrassed to feel that way about their Union. Perhaps they are afraid of ridicule in this time of anti-union bias in the media and the hateful anti-labor propaganda put out by groups like Americans For Prosperity and the Chamber of Commerce.

In a sense, these groups are exactly who Mother Jones was talking about when she said, “Our Masters.” They are organized, and what they are organized about are workers’ rights, wages, and benefits suppressed along with trying to limit the political power of Labor Unions. If you question this assertion, let me offer a couple of examples to make my point.

First, as some of our members are aware, those who contribute to V-CAP have to fill out a slip each year in order to illustrate this.

Washington politicians must think we’re stupid. They take money from corporate interests like Big Oil and Wall Street banks. They introduce legislation that directly supports the bottom line of these companies, and then they expect us to believe that the campaign contributions they receive have nothing to do with how they vote or what they say.

In the real world, no one believes Exxon Mobile or Bank of America gives millions of dollars to Congress out of the kindness of their cold, corporate hearts. And no one thinks Big Business is confused about what it is doing. They spend millions for returns in the billions.

Big Oil won a big vote in the U.S. Senate by blocking a popular bill that would have cut $24 billion in taxpayer subsidies for the five richest oil companies. The 48 U.S. Senators who voted in favor of Big Oil received $23.5 million in campaign contributions from the oil and gas industries. The 52 Senators who voted to cut the subsidies received $5.8 million. [Editor’s note: 60 votes were needed for cloture.]

That’s no coincidence; it’s just business as usual in our nation’s capital, another corporate handout by politicians in exchange for campaign contributions. It’s time to get our special interest money out of our politics. It will take a constitutional amendment to overturn the Supreme Court’s Citizens United decision.

The Michigan needs to be next.

Hello out there all you wonderful people! Well, here I am again, back where I was a few weeks ago. Back at the Healing and Recovery Center.

I put my back out on the 1st of August, just bending over. They had to fill my L4 lumbar with cement, then four weeks of therapy. Went home on the 2nd of August. Then back in the ER at Sparrow on the 3rd of August. So back getting therapy again.

I hope I can get a lot stronger, but that again next year.

Thank you to all the helpers who made this picnic possible; there is a lot of prep that goes into making the picnic happen. I could not have gotten through it without Dennis Slowinski and Nancy Munchbach, who both sit on the UAW Lansing Area Council of Retired Workers committee with me. Thanks!

Earlier this summer we had our own picnic at the hall. We rented the tent from Tom and, as in the past, he handled it as well as always. We had good weather, food and friends. Thank you to the Executive Board and to all who worked so hard to make this happen.

The winners of the dessert contest were Mary Bohnert, Bonnie Leak and Tim Loveland. Thanks to the awarded chefs and all others who brought so many fabulous desserts and dishes. I was pleased and proud of the talent shown. Thanks for coming. Hope you had a good time. Please let us know your ideas for next year.

In-plant silent auction September 14, 25 and 26. You can go bid on an item or call Kathy Bone with a donation. It could be a white elephant gift still sitting in your closet, or something you made. It’s all going to help a good cause. For questions, call Local 602 at 517-3309.

This is something that you will not want to forget: at the regular October meeting Colleen Allen from VEBA will be there to show you any upcoming changes in benefits. Please bring your policy questions. If you have ben-efit questions now, please call your repre-sentative now. Chuck and Joe are always willing and able to help you.

At our next meeting on September 12 we will be cooking on the grill (try to stretch the summer). We will do hot dogs and burgers. Please bring a dish to pass or enjoy our summer barbeque.

There will be a Lansing Area-Wide Region 1C Retiree Euchre Tournament on October 2. See the box below.

Veterans’ activities
By Michael Melfi, Local 652 Veteran’s Committee Chair
From the Veterans of Region 1-C we hope everyone celebrated a cool relaxing Michigian summer. We know the Veterans of our Region have been busy with many community activities and fund raisers for our disabled and homeless Veterans and their families.

In May at our second-quarter Regional meeting, which was held at the VFW National Home for Children, the Veterans Committee of Region 1-C donated a check in the amount of $2,500. Normally we would donate bicycles; however, this year it was decided to contribute to their wish-list, which you also can review and make your generous donation towards one of the many items that the families need.

May also was the month for Lansing Volunteers of America’s Annual Homeless Veteran’s Stand-Down. Volunteers from UAW Locals 425, 602, 652, 724 and several others not only donated their own personal time, (vacation, leave w/o pay, etc), but those Locals made monetary contributions to offset the cost of sponsoring that event.

August was the month of our third-quarter Veterans Regional meeting which was held in Battle Creek at the VA Medical Hospital. After our business meeting we were hosted by the hospital with lunch. We then volunteered the remainder of our day at the pavilion for their Annual Watermelon Festival, where resident Veterans were treated to an afternoon of music, games, conversation and cold watermelon. Representatives of Local 652 presented a check to the residents for the resident Veterans.

Another example of the anti-war “master’s” actions is the Right-to-Work law passed by the Michigan Legislature. This proposal, and the campaign to make it law, was financed largely by anti-union groups like Americans For Prosperity and the Chamber of Commerce.

for any of those dollars to be used in in- state elections. Why is that? Because the chief counsel of the Chamber of Commerce convinced the Michigan At- torney General to enforce an ambigu- ous part of Michigan Election law in just that manner; and a Republican-con- trolled Michigan Supreme Court went along with their interpretation.

Another example of the anti-war “master’s” actions is the Right-to-Work law passed by the Michigan Legislature. This proposal, and the campaign to make it law, was financed largely by anti-union groups like Americans For Prosperity and the Chamber of Commerce.
